ICAST COUNTDOWN: Meet Roland Martin at Flying Fisherman booth

POSTED ON 10/07/2016 BY ANTHONY - COMMENTS (0 COMMENTS)

ICAST visitors walking the show on Thursday will have the opportunity to meet legendary angler and TV host, Roland Martin, in the booth of popular sunglasses brand, Flying Fisherman.

Martin, one of the most successful tournament bass fishermen ever and host of the Fishing with Roland Martin TV show, endorses Flying Fisherman products. He owns a home in Islamorada where the company is based.

During his stellar career, Martin amassed 20 wins, 19 second-place finishes and 24 appearances in the Bassmaster Classic. He was also crowned Bass Angler of the Year nine times. He was the first professional bass angler to be inducted into all three halls of fame – IGFA, Freshwater Fishing and Professional Bass Fishing.

Flying Fisherman is introducing a range of new eyewear and apparel in Orlando, including seven new models of polarised sunglasses and 10 designs of its SunBandit protective headwear, along with other performance apparel.

Visitors can see the new products at booth 647 and can say hello to Roland Martin between 11am and 12.30pm on Thursday, July 14th.
